

The Elegance of Abstraction
Spring 2015

Writing assignment 2

Set: Week 4
Due: Week 5

Please print, staple and bring to class.

1. Write a 400-500 story in which the right outcome is achieved via the wrong process.
2. Construct a series of “Why?” questions where every time you provide an answer someone asks “Why?” again, and your answers eventually arrive in the realm of mathematics or logic. Try to make it a series of 3–6 questions.
